CURRICULUM

A woman with long blonde hair, wearing a white lace-trimmed top over a dark long-sleeved shirt, is holding a stack of five curriculum books. The books have colorful striped covers (red/white, orange/white, green/white, blue/white, and dark blue/white) and the text "THAT IT MAY GO Well" and "LAMP & LIGHT LIVING" on the spine. The top book is a "Parent Plan Book" with a rainbow logo and the text "EDUCATION WITH A BIBLICAL FOUNDATION". In the background, a window shows a snowy forest scene. A framed sign on the wall to the left partially reads "HE IS MY".

Please Note: We will study Asia for the remainder of this year. Asia is a vast continent with many cultures, climates, and countries. It is home to some of the most populous countries on earth. We recommend studying a variety of countries from different parts of the continent throughout the year.

All about Asia

- Asia is the largest continent, covering about 30% of Earth's land area.
- It is the most populated continent, with over 4.7 billion people (more than half of the world's population).

Why the Rainbow?

Because God always keeps His promises...AND we're tired of the world hijacking things that belong to the Lord! We're not proud of sin; we humble ourselves to fervently seek that Lord and ask Him to remember mercy:

"LORD, I have heard of your fame; I stand in awe of your deeds, LORD. Repeat them in our day, in our time make them known; in wrath remember mercy." Habakkuk 3:2 NIV

God gave the rainbow as a sign after He destroyed the earth by a flood. He saved Noah and his family because Noah trusted and obeyed God. The rainbow is a beautiful, physical reminder of the covenant that God made with the world to never destroy the earth with a flood again. He is a righteous God, and He saves those who trust and obey Him. He always keeps His promises. Jesus is coming again, and those who trust and believe Him will see God's promise of a new heaven and a new earth where Righteousness dwells. Jesus made a New Covenant with us in His blood, and through His sacrifice we can escape the wrath and fire to come. We can freely accept His mercy and, like Noah, choose obedience and faithfulness to the Lord in a generation of wickedness.

God's promises aren't just for people in the Bible. You hold this curriculum in your hand because God is a promise-making and promise-keeping God. He is faithful, and we can trust and obey Him!

God always keeps His promises.

BIBLE PROJECT

For the rest of this unit, instead of grammar you've learned to a final Bible project.

This year you've heard/read the Bible and learned about God's power, greatness, sternness, and kindness in the Bible. You have learned God's expectations of His people to obey and suffer when they didn't.

To end the year, you are going to make a Bible project. This is a portion of a Bible Timeline you may add to it.

- Please include the timeline of the King's reign.
- Please include writings from Psalms and ways to incorporate these.
- Please highlight stories that stood out to you and what someone can learn from them.
- Please choose one story to interview someone about and write a direct quote from your interview in your project.
- Plan to make this several pages long. You better for your family for space/storage.
- Make this visually engaging. Be creative.

GRAMMAR PROJECT

Punctuating Dialogue: There are specific rules for how to punctuate dialogue. We use quotation marks to set apart what someone is saying.

If the speaker is named before the quote, a comma goes within the quotation marks.

Example: Jesus said, "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven."

If the speaker is named after the quote, use a comma within the quotation marks.

Examples: "Love must be sincere," said Paul in his letter to the Romans. "Don't touch! It's hot!" shouted Mom.

Please add quotation marks and missing punctuation to the following sentences.

- Jesus said I am the light of the world
- Then Peter asked Lord if it is really you
- Go and make disciples of all nations command
- Mary exclaimed My Lord has risen
- The angel said Do not be afraid, for I bring you good news
- Saul shouted Who are you, Lord
- Jesus told them Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in paradise

Please write a sentence with a quote before the subject.

Please write a sentence with the speaker in the middle of the quote.

BIBLE PROJECT

For the rest of this unit, instead of grammar worksheets, you will be applying what you've learned to a Bible project.

This year you've been reading the Bible and we've read about the Kingdom of Israel & Judah, Pharaoh, and the people of Israel. There are some incredible stories of God's power, goodness, mercy, and love in these books. You have learned God's expectations of His people and how they should live. They didn't always do it, but they should.

GRAMMAR PRACTICE

Remembering the Bible: There are specific rules to grammar to know when someone is speaking. We use grammar rules to tell apart what's spoken and what's written.

If the speaker is named before the quote, a comma follows their name, and the ending punctuation goes within the quotation marks.
Example: "I will be with you," said the Lord to the people of Israel.

If the speaker is named after the quote, use a comma, end with a period, or question mark after the quote marks.
Example: "I will be with you," said the Lord to the people of Israel.

Please write a sentence with a quote before the speaker.

34

OPTIONAL UNIT ACTIVITIES

Why the Rainbow?

Because God always keeps His promises...AND we're tired of the world hijacking things that belong to the Lord! We're not proud of sin; we humble ourselves to fervently seek that Lord and ask Him to remember mercy:

"LORD, I have heard of your fame; I stand in awe of your deeds, LORD. Repeat them in our day, in our time make them known; in wrath remember mercy." Habakkuk 3:2 NIV

God gave the rainbow as a sign after He destroyed the earth by a flood. He saved Noah and his family because Noah trusted and obeyed God. The rainbow is a beautiful, physical reminder of the covenant that God made with the world to never destroy the earth with a flood again. He is a righteous God, and He saves those who trust and obey Him. He always keeps His promises. Jesus is coming again, and those who trust and believe Him will see God's promise of a new heaven and a new earth where Righteousness dwells. Jesus made a New Covenant with us in His blood, and through His sacrifice we can escape the wrath and fire to come. We can freely accept His mercy and, like Noah, choose obedience and faithfulness to the Lord in a generation of wickedness.

God's promises aren't just for people in the Bible. You hold this curriculum in your hand because God is a promise-making and promise-keeping God. He is faithful, and we can trust and obey Him!

God always keeps His promises.

BIBLE PROJECT

For the rest of this unit, instead of grammar you've learned to a final Bible project.

This year you've heard/read the Bible and the teachings of Wisdom. The power, greatness, sternness, and kindness in You have learned God's expectations of His people and suffer when they didn't.

To end the year, you are going to make a Bible portion of a Bible Timeline you may add to it

- Please include the timeline of the Kingdom
- Please include writings from Psalms and way to incorporate these.
- Please highlight stories that stood out to few sentences and what someone can learn.
- Please choose one story to interview someone direct quote from your interview in your Plan to make this several pages long. You better for your family for space/storage.
- Make this visually engaging. Be creative.

GRAMMAR PROJECT

Punctuating Dialogue: There are specific rules in speaking. We use quotation marks to set apart

If the speaker is named before the quote, a comma goes within the quotation marks.
Example: Jesus said, "Blessed are the poor in spirit."

If the speaker is named after the quote, use a colon mark within the quotation marks.
Examples:
"Love must be sincere," said Paul in his letter to the
"Don't touch! It's hot!" shouted Mom.

Please add quotation marks and missing punctuation

1. Jesus said I am the light of the world
2. Then Peter asked Lord if it is really you
3. Go and make disciples of all nations command
4. Mary exclaimed My Lord has risen
5. The angel said Do not be afraid, for I bring you
6. Saul shouted Who are you, Lord
7. Jesus told them Truly I tell you, today you will

Please write a sentence with a quote before the speaker

Please write a sentence with the speaker in the middle
